Breeding Rights & Responsibilities

For any dog who is sold with breeding rights (if YES is circled below), BUYER agrees that full breeding rights will not be active until the BUYER is an Armenian Gampr Club of America (AGCA) Member and has joined the AGCA Approved Breeder Program. BUYER must additionally complete an Embark breed + health DNA test and a AGCA physical/working evaluation, prior to breeding. Further health testing (OFA hips, elbows and patella) is recommended but optional. BUYER also agrees to never breed this dog to one who is not AGCA Registered. BUYER agrees to never out-cross to any other breed.

Includes Breeding Rights: Yes* / No (Initials: SELLER _____ BUYER _____)

*Breeding rights require Armenian Gampr Club of America (AGCA) Membership & joining the Approved Breeder Program as detailed above. AGCA Membership must be complete prior to puppy pick up. If this dog does not include breeding rights noted above, BUYER agrees that this dog is being sold as NON-BREEDING and shall not be bred under any circumstance.

Support & Registration

SELLER agrees to provide mentorship to the BUYER, for the life of the puppy.

BUYER acknowledges that AGCA Registration is a requirement for all puppies and that registration must be completed no later than one week prior to puppy pick up. SELLER will pay the registration cost to AGCA for all BUYERS who are AGCA Members. BUYERS who are not AGCA Members are responsible for paying the Non-Member Registration fee directly to AGCA prior to pick up.

Health

Puppies will be microchipped, vaccinated, and dewormed prior to pick up. SELLER presents this puppy, at the time of sale, as a true representative of the breed that is structurally and temperamentally suited as a potential future breeder and for the intended purpose at their new home. SELLER cannot guarantee any dog's adult structural, behavioral, or breeding traits.

BUYER agrees to take this dog to a licensed veterinarian of their choice within 5 days from pick up for a physical examination, if there are any questions as to health. If the puppy is determined to be in terminal health, SELLER may get a second opinion, by a vet of their choosing and at their own expense. If a fatal cause of which is clearly attributable genetically, the dog may, upon signed written diagnosis from the veterinarian(s), be transferred to the SELLER for a refund of the sale price or puppy replacement when one becomes available. Guarantee does not cover any health issues caused by neglect/injury from the BUYER or third party transport, nor does it include illnesses/issues such as colds, allergies, internal/external parasites, fertility issues, etc. SELLER will not knowingly withhold any information of afflictions from the BUYER.

BUYER agrees to keep the SELLER informed of any major health issues that may occur in the dog's lifetime. This enables the SELLER with to follow up on related puppies and gives important feedback on the health of the dogs for future generations.

Ownership & Training

BUYER understands the importance of owning this ancient breed and agrees that they will strive to be a responsible owner, and a good representative of the breed and Armenian Gampr Club of America (AGCA) Member. BUYER further acknowledges that they have received, read, fully understand, and will adhere to all aspects of the AGCA Code of Ethics.

BUYER understands that owning a dog is a life-long commitment and agrees to provide appropriate shelter, proper and timely medical attention, proper grooming, and responsible care. This includes, but is not limited to, keeping puppy/dog parasite free, up to date with inoculations, proper nutrition, and fresh water available always.

BUYER will educate themselves on how to properly train their new puppy and agrees to not use the "no-touch method" or any other negative training method. BUYER agrees to communicate with SELLER concerning training help. BUYER is also encouraged to utilize the resources available on the AGCA website (gampr.org), the "Armenian Gampr Club of America" Facebook group and the "Training Support for Livestock Guardian Dogs" Facebook group. BUYER agrees that they fully understand that puppies are not instant guardians and must be properly introduced to new livestock and animals, then worked under supervision with daily to grow into their role.

If at any time the BUYER can no longer retain possession of this dog for any reason, BUYER must contact the SELLER immediately and be given first right of refusal, at no charge except for applicable transport costs. If the SELLER cannot take back possession of the dog, the SELLER will work diligently with the BUYER to find a new placement. BUYER agrees the dog can only be transferred to a SELLER approved home, and only after a new puppy contract has been signed.

Payment & Pick Up

Puppy may be reserved with a non-refundable deposit with the balance due at pick up.

Payment methods accepted: CashApp, Zelle, PayPal (Family and Friends option) or cash. Payments made via an App will include any fees that would be incurred by the SELLER and are not considered complete until fully cleared. No checks will be accepted.

If the SELLER cannot fulfil a puppy reservation, they will refund the deposit, or the BUYER may choose to transfer the deposit onto a future litter.

Puppies may be picked up after 8 weeks of age. BUYER may pick up or arrange transport and is responsible for any incurred transportation costs. The BUYER is responsible for the additional $75 vet cost if a health certificate is requested.

Violations

BUYER understands that violating the terms of this contract may result in their being fined up to the maximum allowed in small claims court in the resident county of the SELLER, plus court costs, with ownership rights of the BUYER revoked and immediate return of the dog, at the BUYER'S expense. Fine is charged per violation.
